WHO ARE THE FRIENDS?

The Friends of Upper Dublin Public Library, a non-profit, volunteer organization, stimulates public interest in our library and supplements funding to support the cultural, educational and special needs of the library.

We sponsor and promote adult, teen & children's programs such as the popular Summer Reading Club. In 2009 we donated $19,000! We endow most of the library's guest speakers, workshops, and entertainers. The Friends also fund special library purchases such as special collections; the free book review newsletter, BookPage; and the new museum and arboretum membership passes free for checkout!

Why join the Friends?

- Your membership will make a valuable contribution to your library's services and facilities.
- You have enjoyed the free exchange of books, audio/visual materials and the privilege of using current technologies in the pursuit of knowledge and information.
- You want the Upper Dublin Public Library to remain a vital and enriching community resource.

Become a Friend today and know that 100% of your donation benefits Library programs, sponsorships and special purchases.
